The cast of Oliver

EC presents 'Oliver' as spring musical

By GREGG COX

Many of us may remember these famous words—"Please sir, I want some more," uttered by one of Charles Dickens' most unforgettable characters, Oliver Twist. The passionate and moving story of a young orphan boy who overcomes the hardships of being born into an early nineteenth century English workhouse, his apprenticeship to an undertaker, and his manipulation by an evil and masterful criminal to eventually triumph over the evil to inherit his cherished birthright.

Beginning with a matinee on March 31, and running through April 3, the EC Players will present a musical adaptation of Dickens' popular novel with the music composition by Lionel Bart. The cast for the show includes some familiar faces to the EC stage, some newcomers, and a host of children. The roles are as follows: Matt Hedrick as Oliver; David Ezell (EC student who performed in "Li'l Abner" and "1940's Radio Hour") as Mr. Bumble/adult chorus; Marie Hinson (EC student) as Widow Corney; James Crapse (EC student) as Mr. Sowerberry/1st man/adult chorus; Cindy Callahan (EC student) as Mrs. Sowerberry/Old Sally/milkmaid/adult chorus; Denise Hutchins as Charlotte/children's chorus; Shane Sullivan (EC student) as Noah/2nd runner/adult chorus; Chris Carson as the Artful Dodger; Rick Brooks (EC student) as Fagin/knife grinder; Lucas Majure as Charley Bates/children's chorus; Amy Service (EC student) as Nancy; Jennifer Pace as Bet/adult chorus; Brad Hodge (EC student) as Mr. Brownlow/adult chorus; Kelly Keeton (EC student) as the rose seller/adult chorus; Kim Stephens (EC student) as the strawberry seller/adult chorus; Diego Velasco (EC student, who performed in "Here Lies Jeremy Troy") as Bill Sikes; Deidre Amis (EC student) as Mrs. Bedwin; Paul McCaughn (EC student) as Dr. Grimwig/adult chorus; Natalie Boggan as first woman/children's chorus; Kelly Harris as second woman/children's chorus; Jennifer Carson as boy/children's chorus; Emily Boggan as old lady/children's chorus; Jennifer Collins (EC student) as lady/adult chorus; Tommy Cummings (EC student) as 1st runner/adult chorus; Harold Farmer (EC student) as 3rd runner/adult chorus; Nick Pouncey (EC student who performed in "Li'l Abner" and "1940's Radio Hour") as 1st nightwchman/adult chorus; Bryan Miley (EC student who performed in "Here Lies Jeremy Troy") as 2nd nightwatchman/adult chorus. Hank Harms will be serving as back stage manager for the production.

Under the direction of Judy Carroll, this tremendous cast should (if previous EC productions dictate what this one will be like) put on an outstanding show. Looking at it now I can see not only Oliver, but the audience as well on closing night, saying, "Please EC Players, we want some more."
